

International Sports Performance Academy

November 4th to 14th, 2019

(Arrive on Nov. 3rd - Depart on Nov. 15th)

Academy Program Overview

The Athletes in Action International Sports Performance Academy is an invite only two-week journey blending instruction, leadership development and cultural experience on Sports Medicine and Strength and Conditioning.

Professionals from around the world, converge in Xenia, Ohio at AIA's World Training & Resource Center to add to their professional pedigree. They depart with a focused mission – to lead and guide their athletes through their sports career, but in their homes and communities, too.
